I am writing you today to encourage you and the Department of Justice to accept the Microsoft antitrust settlement. The issue has been dragged out for over three years and it is time to put an end to it. A settlement is available and the terms are fair. I would like to see the government accept it.

In order to reach a settlement, Microsoft has made many concessions. They have agreed to give computer makers the flexibility to install and promote any software that they see fit. Microsoft has also agreed not to enter into any agreement that would require any computer maker to use a fixed percentage of Microsoft software. Also, Microsoft has agreed to license its software at a uniform price to computer makers no matter how much they use it.

Microsoft and the industry need to be able to move on. The longer that this suit goes on, the worse it will be for everyone. Microsoft has agreed to many terms to reach a settlement. The settlement is fair and should be accepted. Please accept the Microsoft antitrust settlement.

Sincerely,

DOLORES HANSON
